The Banyan Family Network Expands Drug Addiction and Mental Health Treatment Services into Northeastern Pennsylvania, Bringing Aboard Clearbrook Treatment Centers.

03/16/2018: The Banyan Family Network has brought aboard Wilkes-Barre Treatment, LLC. now operating as Clearbrook Treatment Centers, an inpatient detox and residential addiction treatment center located in Laurel Run, Pennsylvania that houses 68 beds. This addition to the Banyan Family Network marks the seventh facility of Banyan Treatment Centers nationwide. Under the Banyan Family Network, there are currently locations in Pompano Beach, FL, Stuart, FL, Boca Raton, FL, Chicago, IL, Boston, MA and Philadelphia, PA. All treatment facilities within the Banyan Family Network are Joint Commission Accredited, providing safe and effective drug addiction and mental health care of the highest quality and value.

The communities of Pennsylvania have never been in more dire need of access to addiction treatment. According to data reported by Lackawanna and Luzerne County Coroners, the region in which Clearbrook is located, the number of fatal drug overdoses was 224 in 2016 alone. The 2017 data is expected to show an increase from the previous year.

"The Banyan Family Network chose to investigate acquiring Clearbrook Treatment Centers because the facility is reputable, well-staffed, well-equipped and has always operated appropriately," stated Eric Oakes, Chief Operations Officer at Banyan Treatment Center, headquartered in Pompano Beach, FL. According to Oakes, Clearbrook Treatment Centers' executive management team and department heads have been assured that all current employees will be retained in the acquisition. Joseph Tuttle, Founder and CEO of Banyan Treatment Center, has stated that the facility will continue to treat patients who require county funding and medical assistance.
